

Actions to take in a Financial Crisis

Wyoming Housing Network's mission is to help people meet their housing goals. Right now, our communities are in a time of crisis. We offer Foreclosure Prevention Services and Financial Capabilities Counselling free. We are here to help. We ask during this time, if possible, please complete steps one thru three before contacting us so that we can most effectively help you with your situation.

Four Steps to take control and have a plan.

1. Create a Budget: Prioritizing needs that must be met first.
2. Make a list of all your creditors including their name, contact information, and account number and payment information.
3. Plan to contact different service providers and creditors to see if they have assistance or deferral plans in place. Many will work with you.
4. Research other assistance that might be available in the community to take some of the strain off your finances.

Step One: Create a budget

When your income changes and you have more bills than money having a budget in place becomes critical. Taking care of your basic needs is your top priority. Food, Shelter, Transportation, etc. These should be the first items you budget for.

This might require hard decisions and looking at your budget to see where you can make temporary cuts (such as memberships, streaming services, eating out) etc. It will also be critical in deciding the best course of action for any relief money that you might receive from the Coronavirus Relief Legislation.

Just because relief is coming and drastic measures, such as eviction and foreclosure are on hold, does not mean that you can stop paying your bills.

This is a good article to help you plan:

- Consumer Finance:
 - <https://www.consumerfinance.gov/about-us/blog/protect-yourself-financially-from-impact-of-coronavirus/>

| Crisis Budget | |
|---|---|
| Food | You and your family must eat. In our resource section there is a statewide list of food pantries. Also, do an internet search for ways to stretch a food budget, find coupons, and plan inexpensive meals. |
| Shelter | There is a federal hold on evictions in public housing and foreclosures for at least 60 days. However, this money will come due. If you can make these payments, they should still be a priority You cannot just stop making our mortgage or rent payment. Work with your landlord or mortgage company. See step two for a page to get you started. |
| Transportation | Car payment may be deferrable depending on who your loan is through. Contact your lender directly. |
| Phone | Communication is key for job interviews etc. Can you lower your plan costs by changing plans? Call your service provider directly to see if they are deferring payments etc. |
| Medications | Prescriptions and other health supplies are essential. Do not sacrifice your health during this stressful time. Read http://www.news.sanofi.us/What-to-Do-When-You-Cant-Afford-Your-Chronic-Disease-Medication or https://www.verywellhealth.com/what-to-do-when-you-cant-afford-your-medication-1942844 |
| Insurance | Life still happens, accidents etc. Do not let your insurance lapse. Call your provider for assistance or possibly less coverage for the short term to keep yourself protected. |
| Utilities | The Wyoming Public Service Commission has ordered utilities companies to Not Shut off Service during the COVID-19 Crisis. Your utilities cannot be shut off. However, contacting your provider in advance will give you more opportunities to take advantage of assistance they may have. |
| Clothing | If you have clothing to wear and can make do for a few months this should be an expense that can be moved to a secondary priority or put on hold all together. |
| Estimate Bills | If your bills vary month to month. You can look at the last few months of payments and use an average if you need to. |
| Other bills | |
| If you cannot pay all your bills prioritize by essential services. One technique is a rotation of paying each one as additional funds allow and making your way down the list with a single payment. This is after prioritizing essential needs and consequences of defaulting. Another is to divide any additional income by the number of bills and pay that amount to each. Here are a couple resources for processes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dave Ramsey Article: https://www.daveramsey.com/blog/what-to-do-when-you-cant-pay-your-bills • CPFB - https://www.consumerfinance.gov/about-us/blog/behind-bills-three-steps-help-you-make-tough-choices-tight-moments/ Personal and Credit Card Loans should not take precedence over shelter and food. You cannot be threatened, subjected to violence or obscene language, they cannot contact you outside of the hours of 8 am and 9 pm, they cannot misrepresent who they are and they cannot contact your work if told verbally or in writing that is not allowed. Step 2: Create a list of all creditors and their contact information.

You will need this in order to effectively take advantage of relief programs and negotiate with lenders.

Do not do nothing!!! Call your financial institutions to see how they can help.

Homeowners who have lost income or their jobs because of the coronavirus outbreak are getting some relief. Depending on your situation, they should be eligible to have their mortgage payments reduced or suspended for up to 12 months. As of right now Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac are ordering lenders to offer homeowners flexibility. The move covers about half of all home loan in the U.S. – those guaranteed by Fannie and Freddie. But regulators expect that the entire mortgage industry will quickly adopt a similar policy. The forbearance is up to 12 months depending on their situation.

HOMEOWNERS CAN NOT JUST STOP PAYING THEIR MORTGAGE!! They need to contact their servicer. The lender should be able to work with them and find a workout payment plans.

Specific Examples of Lenders with programs (this is not exhaustive just the ones our clients have worked with)

Ally Bank- You can call or go online. There is relief for Ally's auto loan and home loan customers in the form of payment deferrals for up to 120 day.

Bank of America- Aiding qualifying consumers and small business clients facing hardships, including forbearance with certain fees. The CEO has agreed to donated $100 million to support communities impacted by the outbreak.

Chase- recommending that customers reach out to the bank if they need assistance as a result of the coronavirus outbreak.

Fifth Third Bank- There are fee waiver programs. They ensure consumers and small business owners with deposit accounts won't be charged feed for up to 90 days. Foreclosure actions on residential properties and repossessions of vehicles will also cease for the next 60 days.

Chrysler Financial and Toyota Finance- Offering deferral options on auto loan.

First Interstate Bank has information on their home page.

Reach out to your creditor and talk with them NOW! Do not wait.

WCDA - Each insurer has their own guidelines so the best thing our borrowers can do is contact WCDA Servicing Department to discuss available options. We encourage borrowers to check WCDA's website, Facebook and Twitter for any updates during this very unprecedented time.

Step 3: Reach out to Creditors to see if they have assistance or deferment plans you can take advantage of to reduce the pressure and stress of the situation.

1. Be prepared to explain your specific hardship.
 - a. For example, layoff due to slow economy caused by COVID-19 Shutdown.
2. Let them know you have done a budget but need their assistance. Ask specifically for what kind of help they may be able to offer.
 - a. For example: Some auto lenders are deferring payments for a few months, adding those payments to the end of the loan. You still must pay them but not right now. The length of your loan is extended.
3. Be patient. We have found wait times and response times are longer due to high demands.
4. Be kind. These are unique times, and everyone is under additional stress. A little kindness goes a long way to making a conversation more tolerable and productive.
5. Do not commit to a payment plan you are not sure you can meet. You can always thank the lender for their information and help and let them know you will be in contact as you continue to work on things.
